Born and raised in Crete, Greece, Nikolas Fragkos alias Sydo was introduced to the sounds of RnB and House music from an early age and became interested in DJing and producing music.

In 1998 he became one of the founding members, the DJ and producer of Face 2 Face. In 2000 came their first CD single Panikos, which received excellent reviews (in music magazines and radio stations etc). Four times their single was sold out. Face2Face was regarded as the first genuine rap-metal group in the music scene of Greece and get full suport by Bands & Artist such as T.X.C, FF.C,Rasatar,Zn and more.

Sydo produced and mixed the first single of Lego Boy titled 'Into your eyes' (Deep House). In 2004 he traveled to Athens to work in music production studios (Warehouse etc) and on a variety of Sound Design projects. Over the years Sydo's work has expanded from Assistant Sound Engineer and Studio sound recordist/engineer to Audio post-production and from Music producer to Sound designer for performance/live art.

In the year 2005 Sydo mixed the competition music for the Greek synchronised swimming team. He was also part of the team producing the advertising music for many local consumer products in Greece. He worked with variety of projects and artists in the past and that established himself as unique performance Dj artist in his home country Greece.

Since 2006 Sydo carries the legacy of Face 2 Face on, by producing and remixing music for other artists. In 2007 he went to London and had been part as Production Assistant and Sound Designer for Cwtch. The event had been organized on April 11 by ShowStudio in association with PlayStation 3 staged a live 'happening', viewed by an on-site audience of fifty SHOWstudio viewers and an audience via webcast.
